To make certain that you do not become responsible for any debts incurred by an identity theft, you must prove that you did not create the debt. The information will enable us to investigate the fraud and decide the outcome of your claim. (If someone made unauthorized charges or opened an account in your name at another company and/or institution, please contact that company and/or institution.)

This affidavit has three parts:

- Part one: The Identity Theft Affidavit is where you report general information about yourself and the theft.
- Part two: Letter of Willingness to Prosecute Perpetrator of Fraudulent Transactions is where you agree to prosecute the identity thief.
- Part three: The Fraudulent Account Statement is where you describe the fraudulent account(s) opened in your name.

Here are some important steps you should take during the process:

- Complete this affidavit as soon as possible. We ask that you complete the forms within two weeks of receiving it. The investigation will begin once we receive all of the forms.
- Be as accurate and complete as possible. Please print clearly. Any incorrect or incomplete information will delay processing your claim.
- Deliver completed forms to the nearest branch office. After receiving your forms we will work diligently to solve your claim.
- Keep a copy of everything you submit for your records. Please ask the representative for a copy of all completed forms for your records.

Completing this affidavit does not guarantee that the identity thief will be prosecuted or that the debt will be cleared. A full investigation will be conducted and you will be notified of our decision.

Contact and Resource Information

Contact any one of the nationwide consumer reporting companies to place a fraud alert on your credit report. Fraud alerts can help prevent an identity thief from opening any more accounts in your name. The consumer reporting company you call will contact the other two companies. Also add a victim's statement to your report. Sample statement: "My (Social Security Number, ID or Driver's License) has been used to apply for credit fraudulently. Contact me at (your phone number) to verify all applications." Be sure to ask how long the fraud alert is posted and how it can be extended if necessary. In addition, once you have placed a fraud alert, you are entitled to order one free credit report from each of the three consumer reporting companies.
